

MEDIA RELEASE

It's Green vs Red Time Again !!

After a two-year gap College Field and KGV will welcome back this summer the Men's Teams of Guernsey and Jersey for a T20I Tri-Series for the kiya.ai T20 Inter Insular Cup.

These matches were last played in 2019 when, after a nail biter at College Field on the Friday night that went to a Super Over, Jersey ran out winners taking both games at KGV the following day.

The matches this year will follow the same format and will be;

Friday 20th May	College Field	4.00PM
Saturday 21st May	KGV	10.45AM
Saturday 21st May	KGV	2.45PM

All three matches are recognised officially by ICC and afforded status as T20 Internationals. Currently Jersey are ranked 23rd in the world and Guernsey 38th (Source: <https://www.icc-cricket.com/rankings/mens/team-rankings/t20i>)

"We are obviously delighted to be hosting Inter Insular action again and renewing both old rivalries and friendships with our cricketing colleagues from across the water", said Mark Latter, Guernsey Cricket CEO. "It has been a long time without these games, and we cannot wait to enjoy the thrills of sporting battle again. These games come at a great time to set us up for the ICC Men's T20 World Cup Europe Sub Regional Qualifier B later in July. It is especially appreciated that Wayne Galllichan and the team at kiya.ai are able to continue their support of this series, having been with us, then as Infrasoftware, in 2019."

Os Lopes, Director at Kiya.ai said, "As a pan Channel Island digital business, Kiya.ai is delighted and proud to once again sponsor the T20 cricket inter insular. It has been a long time since players and supporters have been able to enjoy sporting competition and it will be wonderful to renew relationships both on and off the pitch".

Jersey Cricket are also looking forward to the re-start of inter insular competition, "We are looking forward to the fixtures against Guernsey in the Kiya.ai T-20i Series in May. This return to Inter Insular action will be eagerly anticipated by both sets of players and supporters. We expect fierce competition and a great atmosphere in Guernsey next month", said Neil MacRae, Jersey Coach

For the players as well it has been a long wait to get back on the field and compete, Josh Butler Guernsey skipper said, “we are all excited about the prospect of playing inter island cricket again. The squad is looking forward to the challenge of playing against a strong outfit like Jersey and are eager to put in strong performances over the three matches”.

There will be a bar and catering options at both events for either general public or corporate entertaining details of which can be obtained by contacting mark@guernseycricket.com

ENDS

About kiya.ai

We are one of the most innovative digital solutions providers serving financial institutions and governments globally. Our deep domain expertise in Financial Services, Digital Payments, Governance, Risk and Compliance solutions along with market-ready processes. With a global workforce, reliable partner network and operations in over 50 countries, we help more than 500 clients in their digital transformation journey and create sustainable value for the community. We are assessed at CMMI Level 5 v2.0 and we adopt global best practices in our solutions and services delivery.